partisans from Philadelphia and Newark, were first to reach the rendezvous. Soon W. A. Brady, Corbett's manager, appeared, but Corbett was slow in putting in an appearance. When he did arrive he walked immediately over to the table at which Fitz was seated and after removing his overcoat, said: "Well, Fitz., I am here to make a match."

That is what I am here for," replie ! Fitzsimmons defiantly. Then turning to his manager, Capt. Glori, he introduced him to Corbett and said: "My manager will be my spokesman on this occasion. Capt Glori then sat down at the table facing Corbett and Fitzsimmons stood between them. The first word Corbett said was "Where is your money?"

Glori replied: "Here is a $1,000 to bind Corbett immediately pulled out a roll of ter $1,000 bills and piscing them on the table said: "You people have been talking about $10,000 a side. There is my money; cover it." "But, Mr. Corbett you don't expect us to put up $10,000 right away" said Mr. Glori. "You are rich, but we are not." Corbett smiled sarcastically and said: "Where is that $60,000 you have been talking so much about; there is no use playing that poverty gag, it is too stale." Word followed word and a small cyclone was evidently brewing but it passed away again as Corbett finally said: Well here; I'll put up my $10,000 now and you can put yours up when you

Corbett added: "I will fight Fitzaim-mons any time after July 1 of next year and not before. I am making money on the road and will not cancel any of my engagements on any account."

We think," said Capt. Glori, "that you should light within six months and defend the championship twice a year.' "You do, do you?" said Corbett with evident surprise, and then shaking his head slowly, he said: "You are very
